In addition, the professors belonging to the Academic Senate, the General Secretary, the members of the Executive Council, at the publication of the recruitment resolution or at any later moment up until the appointment of a fixed-term researcher - cannot participate in the selection process nor be awarded the contract.

How to apply

Candidates with all the aforementioned requisites who wish to participate in the selection process must submit their application exclusively online, using the online dedicated PICA procedure at the following link: <https://pica.cineca.it/sns/>

The PICA app can be accessed via SPID, by choosing the institution “Scuola Normale Superiore” from the page of available federations; alternatively, the procedure will necessarily require an e-mail address in order to register into the system.

Once identified/registered and once procedure relating to this selection has been accessed, they must also upload as attachments, through the online PICA procedure, exclusively in PDF format:

- a) their scientific-professional CV, using the form that will be made available through the online PICA procedure;
- b) a non-authenticated photocopy of a valid identity document;
- c) a list of the publications that they intend to submit for evaluation purposes, within the limit of 12 as specified in the call (including the PhD thesis if submitted), using the form that will be made available through the online PICA procedure;
- d) a copy of the publications specified in the list referred to in letter c) above, within the limit of 12 as specified in the call; each publication must occupy a space of not more than 30 megabytes;
- e) any qualifications, within those declared in the CV, and/or documents proving them, that they intend to submit.

Until the deadline for the submission of applications, the procedure can save any data inserted in draft mode, enabling their modification and/or integration.

By the established deadline, applications for participation in the selection must be filled in definitively in all their parts, signed, on pain of exclusion, in one of the modes indicated by the online procedure, and submitted – together with all the attachments – by means of the same online procedure.

No signature will be required when submitting the application only if the SPID is used to access procedure.

The date of online submission will be certified by the PICA procedure; candidates will be notified of the receipt of their applications and their subsequent registration by means of two separate e-mail messages. Each application will be attributed a separate identification number (application ID) and a registration number, both visible inside the application; the application ID must be used, together with the call code 23-RTDA-SPS09-13., for any subsequent communications.

Once applications have been submitted online and the confirmation of the online PICA procedure has been received, it will no longer be possible to access them in order to modify them; they may only be withdrawn using the function “ritira/Withdraw” on the initial page of the procedure. Candidates can, however, submit a new application. After the deadline for submission, the online procedure will no longer permit access or the online transmission of applications. Please note that the online procedure may undergo temporary suspensions for technical reasons.

No other form of transmission of applications and/or documentation for participation in the selection is allowed other than those indicated above. Solely in the case of proven and certified technical unavailability of the online PICA procedure, the Scuola reserves the right to accept admission applications and/or supporting documentation submitted in other modes, provided they are transmitted before the call deadline.

Qualifications submission procedure

- European citizens may prove that they have the necessary qualifications to be submitted for evaluation simply by posting their application and their CV by means of the online PICA procedure. Candidates attest to the veracity of what is stated in their application and in their CV and to the conformity to the original of the documents attached in compliance with Arts. 46 and 47 of D.P.R. No. 445 of 28th December 2000, in the section relating to declarations of responsibility of the online PICA procedure for the submission of applications.
- Non-EU citizens with a regular residence permit may submit a self-certification affidavit only when it is necessary to provide proof of status, facts or personal qualities certifiable or confirmable by Italian public agencies, without prejudice to the special dispositions of the laws and regulations concerning immigration and the rights of foreign citizens, under art. 3 of Presidential Decree No. 445/2000.
- Non-EU citizens can submit a self-certification affidavit also in those cases when the production of self-executed certificates takes place under international agreements between Italy or the European Union and the applicant's country of origin.

Other than in the above mentioned cases, for non-Italian citizens the state, personal qualities and facts stated in their CV are proved by loading the online PICA procedure for the qualifications in PDF format or of the relative certificates/attestations issued by the competent authorities of the non-Italian State in question. The commission may ask to see the originals of the said documents at the discussion of the candidate's qualifications and scientific production; in any case, the Administration reserves the right to request the originals should the candidate be hired.

Documentation in foreign languages:

Qualifications and documents in English, French, German and Spanish can be submitted in their original language. All the qualifications and documents in any other language must be submitted together with a translation into Italian, English, French, German, or Spanish. The translation must be authenticated by law with certification of conformity with the original.

No reference may be made to documents submitted to this or other administrations or to documents attached to the application forms of other selection procedures.
